THE FULL DEBT PAID

Pastor and People Are Correspondingly Happy.

EFFORTS CROWNED WITH SUCCESS

The First M. E. Church Debt Wiped From the Books—An Immense Audience Present Last Night—Pastor and People Have Worked Heroically.

Pastor and people of the First M. E. church of this city have been intensely interested respecting the heavy indebtedness resting against the organization, and they finally decided that every effort, consistent with honor and honesty, must be made to wipe it out. Doctor Huston is a tower of strength in this special line, and he determined, under the blessing of the Master, and by the help of the congregation and the friends and well wishers of the church, that the incubus of debt should no longer hinder effective work, in spiritual as well as other departments, believing that the church should always and ever set the example of owing no man anything, save good will. With this aim in view, he buckled on his harness and got down to hard work—yes, genuine, unadulterated hard work, as will be vouched for by every minister, official or layman who has had any practical experience in the line of church debt raising.

To their credit be it said, the officials and the very large majority of the members of the congregation stood nobly by their pastor, and gave him encouragement in such a manner as to gladden his heart and soul, as he found that the splendid donations of $1,000 each, from two of our leading townsmen, were being liberally backed by the church societies, the Sabbath school, the Epworth League and individual contributions, ranging from $500 down, and that the indications were that the sum of $5,600 would be collected in cash on the 6th of December, as nothing but cash could or would be accepted, such being the terms upon which the two leading contributions of $1,000 each were offered, with the further proviso that, if the full $5,600 was not raised on the date specified, then were all sums, great or small, to be handed back to the respective donors.

But disaster or failure was not written against the heroic efforts of the workers of the First M. E. church. In the morning service, the neat sum of $5,375 was raised, in spot cash, leaving but $275 to be met at the evening service. There was a magnificent congregation present at night, main room and galleries being packed, and there was little trouble in raising the amount required, the pastor annonncing, ere he dismissed with the benediction, that the debt was wiped off the books, with $19.50 as a nest egg, to assist in meeting expenses of the future.

The Foreign and Home Missionary societies and the Dorcas society of the church, combined, gave the sum of $500. The Sabbath school had agreed to give $200, but nobly came to the front with the sum of $424.71. The Epworth league gave $77.50, and individual contributions ranged from $1,000 to one penny, possibly many of the latter contributions being all that could be raised by the givers, and, in such cases, carrying a rich blessing with them, at the hands of the Giver of all good gifts.

Chandler; chaplain, E. S. Johnson; sargeant, John Taylor; master-of-arms, R. Overdorf; first master guard, J. T. Salmon; second master guard, A. C. Anderson; sentinal, John Wucherer; picket, A. E. Adams; trustee, S. Overdorf.

CAUGHT IN THE MACHINERY.

Albert Mader May Lose His Right Arm.

Albert Mader, a young man residing in Grant district, was repairing a piece of machinery at the East End flint mill when the engine started. His right arm was caught, and the moving machinery was slowly grinding it to pieces when Mader with a strong effort succeeded in freeing himself. He was taken home, and a physician from Georgetown dressed the injury. One bone was broken, and the arm so lacerated amputation may be necessary. Mader is a carpenter, and formerly resided here.

HE MUST BEHAVE.

Neighbors Threaten to Report to the Humane Society.

Persons residing in the vicinity of Cadmus and Sophia streets desire to announce that one of their neighbors must cease the practice of abusing his wife and family, or they will feel called upon to lay the case before the Humane society. The husband is charged with spending for drink as much of his wife's slender earnings as he can obtain, and has been known to arouse the neighborhood with the vilest language when kept waiting at the door a few moments.

LET THEM HAVE LIGHT.

Third Street Residents Want One of Those Arcs.

For many years the public square was lighted in a way by the big gas jet at the northwest corner, but some time ago that was extinguished. It is not known whether the force of the wind blew it out, or some unkind person turned the valve, but it is sure the light ceased. Now it is so dark on the square that a cry long and loud comes from the vicinity of city hall. They want an arc lamp, and they hope when council distributes the lights granted by the new contract it will not forget the square.

SAW THE BRIDGE.

Hundreds of People Visited the Place Yesterday.

The beautiful weather of yesterday allowed a great many people to walk out, and several thousands saw the bridge. There was a steady stream during the entire afternoon, and hundreds were there in the morning. Workmen on the bridge say it was the banner day so far as attendance was concerned. The force was at work all day, and few people were allowed to cross. When work ceased at noon the rule against crossing was not enforced.

A GOOD MOVE.

Officer Bertele Made Loafers Go to Church or Move On.

Officer Bertele last evening spent his time in making the rounds of the churches, and compelling the loafers who congregate in the vicinity to go inside or move on. The officer will have the warm commendation of every citizen for his efforts, and it is to be hoped the practice will be entirely broken up.

FAITHFUL MRS. SHARP

AFTER HE HAD WHIPPED HER

Mayor Gilbert Heard the Old Story Again. Three Plain Drunks Gathered In by the Police, and Allowed to Taste of the City's Justice.

Three plain drunks were compelled to sip from the cup Mayor Gilbert always has at city hall, and the city treasury was fattened because of their wickedness.

Jim Sharp's well-known form was seen by the mayor as he glanced into the cooler yesterday morning. Jim had been drunk, and, as usual, sought enjoyment in whipping his wife. He was choking her when someone called the police, and Officer Whan walked him to city hall. Jim was penitent, but the mayor said $6.75, and that ended it. Faithful Mrs. Sharp spent the greater part of yesterday hunting the money, but she could find no one willing to pay for Jim's liberty, and he is working out his fine on the streets.

John Kilmer was arrested by Officer Jennings in his house near the lower part of Union street, and was taken to city hall in the patrol. He was drunk and quarreling with his wife. The mayor charged him $6.60, and he paid it this morning.

John Ferguson, a member of the shanty boat colony, was gathered in by Officer Earl on Saturday night. He, too, was drunk and disorderly, and gave up $6.75 for his liberty.

A telephone message to the fire station last night took Officer Bertele to Fourth and Broadway where a crowd of boys were making more noise than the circumstances demanded. He dispersed the crowd, but returning in half an hour found them again assembled. Two youngsters were taken, but they pleaded so hard for liberty and promised so faithfully to go home that the officer allowed them to depart.

Hontzleman and Quinn, who spent the greater part of last week in jail, were released yesterday, Rusby is still locked up.

SIX DEAD DOGS

Make Thompson Hill People Very Angry.

No less than half a dozen dead dogs were found on Thompson hill during the last days of last week. They had been poisoned, and while they were not especially desirable as dogs their owners were indignant. At last a man was found who acknowledged he killed the dogs because they annoyed him by barking at night, and should be put out of the way. Whether the owners of the dogs take this view of the matter will develop later.

A LITTLE BREEZE.

It Was Caused by the Floating of the Ollie Neville.

The Ollie Neville was floated last Saturday afternoon, and has resumed its daily trips. Captain Pusey thinks the boat was damaged but little by its stay in the water.

The Dispatch is still at the wharf, and the story was afloat this morning that the captain had decided to remain here until the time for which his boat was engaged expired. It was not expected the Ollie Neville would be ready for work for some time.

BEFORE THE CAPTAIN

Was a Youngster Tried For Stealing a Chicken.

The Sunday boats carried large quantities of poultry and game. While the Keystone was at the wharf a small boy was seen standing near the boat with a chicken under his arm. As fowls are frequently stolen from the boat he was taken before Captain Knox who questioned him closely. The boy was so earnest in his denial that he was allowed to go.

RECASED THE WELL.

Water Caused some Trouble on the Henry Farm.

The Williams well on the Henry farm was recased Saturday afternoon because the workmen did not get all the water pumped out when the casing was first put in. The outlook is very favorable for a good well, and it is expected in by Thursday or Friday.

DIPHTHERIA KILLED HIM.

The Agent Could Not Take Care of Orders.

Three weeks ago there was an agent in the city taking orders for a New York house. Where he could not get an order he asked the parties if they needed anything to send direct to him, and not to the house he represented. Several parties sent orders, but upon receiving no reply, wrote to the house and were surprised to learn that the agent had died from an attack of diphtheria a few days after his return from this section of the country.

A NEW SECRETARY.

W. L. Murphy Takes Up a Position With the Sebring Company.

The changes caused by the erection of the plant at East Palestine have already started, and W. L. Murphy this morning took up the position of secretary of the Sebring company in this city, filling the position made vacant by Evas H. Sebring, who goes to Palestine. Mr. Murphy is a trained office man, and his friends confidently expect to have him make a name in the potting business.

THEY WANT A WALK.

Lincoln Avenue People Will Petition Council.

When the board walk on Lincoln avenue was taken up by the street force months ago the property owners understood that another walk, better and more serviceable, would take its place. They have since been wading in so much mud that a number of leading residents have signed a petition asking council to give them a new walk. It will be presented tomorrow night.

TOOK THE EXAMINATION.

Several Young Men Would Be In the Civil Service.

Edward McClure and D. H. Jessop conducted the civil service examination in the First National Bank building Saturday. Charles Bowman, Homer Owen, Charles Eaton, Edward Gould, Harry Wildblood, Thomas H. DeBee and Henry Smith took the examination. The papers were forwarded to Washington.

TALKED POLITICS.

But the Police Soon Ended the Argument.

Officers Whan and Bertele at a late hour Saturday dispersed a large crowd gathered at Sixth and West Market streets. Two men had forgotten the election was over, and were indulging in a heated political argument. They were about to come to blows when the officers sent them home.

A SORE FACE.

Thomas Nagle Suffers From a Bad Burn.

Thomas Nagle found some gas in a pipe the other day, and suffers from a burn in consequence. He was at work on a pipe when it broke, and the gas ignited from a naked light nearby. Fearing a fire would follow, Nagle ran to smother the flame, and his face was burned.

GOING HUNTING.

Pittsburg and East Liverpool Sports Going Over the River.

Edward File, George File and Frank Fitch, Pittsburg sportsmen, arrived in the city on the afternoon train. Tomorrow the party will be joined by George Carey, I. N. Crable and Ambrose Webber, and together they will scour the wilds of West Virginia in search of game.

Called Here by Death.

B. B. Honeycut and wife, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Fred Coleman and Mrs. George Bell, of Columbus; George Wyllie, Mrs. Peters and William King, of Marietta, are in the city today, called here by the death of J. T. King.

CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE

He Has a Few Words Regarding Turkey,

AND SYMPATHIZES WITH CUBA

The President Thinks We Dare Not Interfere In the Orient, and Only When Necessary Should We Oppose Spain—National Bank Reform.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—[Special.]—The last regular message which Grover Cleveland will ever send a congress was read in the capital today, and like all other documents of similar character excited great interest.

He assured congress of the disturbed condition in Turkey, and thinks affairs have assumed a less hideous aspect. "Efforts to protect Americans in Turkey must not be relaxed, although any attempt on our part to force a hostile presence there would not only be resisted by the Ottoman government, but be regarded as an interruption of their plans by the great nations who assert the right to intervene in their own way for the security of life in Turkey. We do not believe the present somber aspect there can be long permitted to offend Christendom.

"We do not believe the situation of affairs in Cuba has improved since our last message. Spain was advised by this government some months ago that if a satisfactory measure for home rule was accepted by the insurgents our government would find a way not objectionable to Spain of furnishing such guarantee. While no definite response was received, we yet believe this would not be altogether unwelcome to Spain. Our policy and interests would constrain us to object to the acquisition of the island or interference by any other nation. When the inability of Spain to deal successfully with the insurgents becomes manifest, then our obligations to Spain's sovereignty will be superceded by a higher obligation which we can hardly hesitate to recognize.

"We are convinced we can have no assured financial peace and safety until the government's currency obligations upon which gold may be demanded from the treasury are withdrawn from circulation and canceled. Issuing low interest bonds for the purpose of redemption appears to be an effective path to reform. National banks should redeem their own currency, and be permitted to issue money for the full value of government bonds deposited."

Leased the Building.

Wasbutzsy Bros, of the Star Bargain store, have leased the rooms now occupied by the Boston store, and will occupy them Feb. 1.

Attorneys Stevenson and Brookes were in Hancock county, Saturday, taking the deposition of Andrew B. Allison.

It Was Caused by the Floating of the Ollie Neville.

The Ollie Neville was floated last Saturday afternoon, and has resumed its daily trips. Captain Pusey thinks the boat was damaged but little by its stay in the water.

The Dispatch is still at the wharf, and the story was afloat this morning that the captain had decided to remain here until the time for which his boat was engaged expired. It was not expected the Ollie Neville would be ready for work for some time.

BEFORE THE CAPTAIN

Was a Youngster Tried For Stealing a Chicken.

The Sunday boats carried large quantities of poultry and game. While the Keystone was at the wharf a small boy was seen standing near the boat with a chicken under his arm. As fowls are frequently stolen from the boat he was taken before Captain Knox who questioned him closely. The boy was so earnest in his denial that he was allowed to go.

RECASED THE WELL.

Water Caused some Trouble on the Henry Farm.

The Williams well on the Henry farm was recased Saturday afternoon because the workmen did not get all the water pumped out when the casing was first put in. The outlook is very favorable for a good well, and it is expected in by Thursday or Friday.

DIPHTHERIA KILLED HIM.

The Agent Could Not Take Care of Orders.

Three weeks ago there was an agent in the city taking orders for a New York house. Where he could not get an order he asked the parties if they needed anything to send direct to him, and not to the house he represented. Several parties sent orders, but upon receiving no reply, wrote to the house and were surprised to learn that the agent had died from an attack of diphtheria a few days after his return from this section of the country.

CLEVELAND'S MESSAGE

He Has a Few Words Regarding Turkey,

AND SYMPATHIZES WITH CUBA

The President Thinks We Dare Not Interfere In the Orient, and Only When Necessary Should We Oppose Spain—National Bank Reform.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—[Special.]—The last regular message which Grover Cleveland will ever send a congress was read in the capital today, and like all other documents of similar character excited great interest.

He assured congress of the disturbed condition in Turkey, and thinks affairs have assumed a less hideous aspect. "Efforts to protect Americans in Turkey must not be relaxed, although any attempt on our part to force a hostile presence there would not only be resisted by the Ottoman government, but be regarded as an interruption of their plans by the great nations who assert the right to intervene in their own way for the security of life in Turkey. We do not believe the present somber aspect there can be long permitted to offend Christendom.

"We do not believe the situation of affairs in Cuba has improved since our last message. Spain was advised by this government some months ago that if a satisfactory measure for home rule was accepted by the insurgents our government would find a way not objectionable to Spain of furnishing such guarantee. While no definite response was received, we yet believe this would not be altogether unwelcome to Spain. Our policy and interests would constrain us to object to the acquisition of the island or interference by any other nation. When the inability of Spain to deal successfully with the insurgents becomes manifest, then our obligations to Spain's sovereignty will be superceded by a higher obligation which we can hardly hesitate to recognize.

"We are convinced we can have no assured financial peace and safety until the government's currency obligations upon which gold may be demanded from the treasury are withdrawn from circulation and canceled. Issuing low interest bonds for the purpose of redemption appears to be an effective path to reform. National banks should redeem their own currency, and be permitted, to issue money for the full value of government bonds deposited."

The president dealt with matters of minor importance; but the above makes the principal part of the message.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, DEC. 7.

STRANGE to say little is heard of gubernatorial candidates. Not even a Democratic patriot has announced his willingness to be sacrificed.

MR. DINGLEY has been talking in a strain which prompts the belief that he will occupy his seat in congress wearing a good sized knife in his sleeve.

THE American people are not sticklers for form. They don't care a rap how congress does it or who supports the measure, but they do want a protective law as soon as possible.

IF half the reports coming from Cuba be true the fighting on the island has been of the most desperate character, and the rebellion has taken on the importance of a great war.

THE editor who suggested that Major McKinley should refuse to give out an office until a tariff bill is passed has the most level kind of a head, and deserves official recognition at the first cabinet meeting.

THE deficiency to date is $179,076,240. It is the record of Democracy, the proof that it was not worthy of the trust given it by the American people. A better example of official worthlessness would be hard, indeed, to find.

IF you have Christmas presents to buy, and who is there who has not, patronize the live, energetic business men who advertise. When a man tells the public what he has, you can depend on it he is not ashamed of his stock.

THE commercial agencies in their reports last week notice the abandonment of two combinations "by which the iron trade was retarded." Now if congress would but compel the early death of all trusts trade would revive with a rush.

THE congressmen, who assembled in Washington today, can serve their country in no better way than to get away from the deficit. It is an expensive thing, this child of Democracy, and it exists only because the government allows it.

THE Youngstown Telegram asks if Ohio will be represented in the cabinet, and then sensibly replies that it will. The Telegram should never have doubted it when it can almost hear, day after day, the hammering of the cabinet makers in Canton.

THE FUTURE OF FREE TRADE.

So far as this country is concerned the future of free trade seems black and cheerless. There is not among the signs of the times one redeeming ray of hope. From every side comes demands from the people which indicates a sentiment not only opposing the pet doctrine of Democracy, but favoring some system that will forever do away with the nonsense which cost this country so many millions of dollars. The Wilson bill was intended as the first step, but it proved so much of a failure that it is not at all likely its friends will have an opportunity in many years to repeat the experiment. This is proven by the vote of a few weeks ago. The great manufacturing districts gave mighty majorities for protection, and the district of Mr. Wilson sent a Republican to congress, while Major McKinley carried the home county of Mr. Mills, in Texas. Only where silver overshadowed every other issue were the Democrats successful. There is a world of meaning in the action of the people, a meaning which demands tariff legislation at the earliest moment consistent with good judgment. They gave free trade no encouragement, and if the Republican party can replace the deplorable condition of the present by wise and judicious laws with protection as a basis, the favorite theory of Mr. Cleveland and his professor friends will not raise its head to blast the country in the next quarter century.

In a sketch of Sir William Martin Conway, the mountain climber and explorer of the Himalayas, The English Illustrated Magazine says that he has the "climber's walk"—that is, a gentle roll of the body, with no unequal steps, but swinging his legs with rhythmic precision. He is a slim man, but tough, full of energy and with iron muscles. When climbing the Himalayas, he spent 84 days on snow and glacier. During that time he traversed from end to end the three longest known glaciers in the world outside the polar regions and landed on the summit of Pioneer peak, 22,000 feet high, the greatest height yet reached by man.

A BROTHER'S DEFENSE.

Hoar Denies Charges Against a Former Attorney General.

DID NOT PACK SUPREME COURT.

He Quotes Letters From Cox and Boutwell Regarding the Appointments of Bradley and Strong—It Involved Reverse of the Legal Tender Decision.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 7.—Senator George F. Hoar has written a long letter defending his brother, the late E. R. Hoar, attorney general in the Grant cabinet, from attacks made during the recent presidential campaign by ex-Secretary Fairchild and others that the supreme court of the United States had been packed to reverse the decision in Hepburn vs Griswold, in which the court held the legal tender act unconstitutional.

After entering into details concerning the matter, and quoting liberally from the records, Senator Hoar makes public two letters just received from two of the members of the cabinet of President Grant. Says Senator Hoar in this connection:

"I have received this letter from Governor Cox. He was then secretary of the interior in Grant's cabinet. He dwelt in the same house with Attorney General Hoar during the summer until the meeting of congress on the 1st of December, 1869, and was the judge's intimate personal friend. He would have known of this matter if it had been known, both as a member of the cabinet and from his familiar with Judge Hoar." The letter is dated from Cincinnati, Nov. 6, and in it Governor Cox says: "I have always regarded the charge that the supreme court was packed to reverse the legal tender decision in Hepburn vs Griswold, as one of the most curious instances of declaring an unwarranted conclusion from a mere coincidence every incident pertaining to the appointment of judges to fill the vacancies was, so far as my recollection can reach, exactly what high minded men would wish, exactly what all who know Judge Hoar would expect from an attorney general having high ideals of public duty.

"I can recall some discussion of the character and qualities of Judge Strong and Bradley among members of the cabinet, but not a single word of reference to their opinions on legal tender question or to any case pending, or likely to be pending in the supreme court. Nothing could be plainer that the attorney general was earnestly determined to recommend only such men as combined the qualities of able lawyers with those of perfectly pure, single-minded and upright citizens. When the nominations were made we felt that such men had been selected.

"My personal convictions then were and still are, that the opinion of Chief Justice Chase in Hepburn vs Griswold, as well as in the subsequent legal tender cases, so called, was the better one in law, and a sounder one on statesmanship, as well as a solid barrier against all forms of fictitious or 'fiat' money."

Senator Hoar then says: "Governor Cox resigned his place in the cabinet not long after this transaction, stating in a public statement his reasons for resigning, that he had not been duly supported by the president in his attempts to protect the rights of the United States against fraud."

He then gives a letter from Governor Boutwell, in which he says:

"The charge to which you call my attention to is this: That in the year 1870 the supreme court was packed by President Grant for the purpose of reversing the legal tender decision in the case of Hepburn vs Griswold and when the names Messrs. Strong and Bradley were sent to the senate Feb. 7, 1870, the nature of the decision in the above named case, although it had not been announced from the bench, was known to the cabinet and president.

"I was a member of President Grant's cabinet at the time mentioned, and I was present at one or more cabinet meetings when the subject was considered and when opinions were expressed as to the fitness of Messrs. Strong and Bradley for the vacant places upon the bench of the supreme court. The legal tender controversy was not spoken of, nor in any manner referred to by the president or by any member of the cabinet."

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

The Senate and House Convened at Noon Today.

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT READ.

Senators Lodge and Chandler Determined to Push the Immigration Bill. Many Members Believe That Appropriation Measures Only Will Pass.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Vice President Stevenson called the senate to order at noon. The first day of the session was devoted almost entirely to receiving the president's message. Immediately after the opening prayer committees were appointed to notify the president and the house of representatives that the senate was organized and ready to receive communications and proceed with business.

The first week of the session is not expected to be productive of important results in a legislative way. There are many senators who think that but little or nothing should be done beyond the passage of the appropriation bills at this session, and as these measures necessarily originate in the house, there will be a disposition to postpone the season of activity until some of these bills can be received from the other end of the capitol. The probabilities are that the daily sessions at the beginning will be comparatively brief, and that the senate will content itself with four days work each week.

The calendar presents a wide range of material for consideration in case the senate shows a disposition to busy itself. In this is included the immigration bill, which is the "unfinished business," the Pacific railroad funding bill, the statehood bills, and the Dingley tariff and bond bills, as well as the tariff and Hawaiian questions.

Senators Lodge and Chandler have announced their determination to press the immigration bill to a vote as speedily as they can. It will be the first regular business to be taken up and cannot be displaced except by vote or unanimous consent. They hope to get the bill through before the holidays. It is also possible that the president's message may suggest subjects for speeches, and there are those who predict that the Cuban question will receive vigorous attention from the beginning of the session.

It is generally agreed that the Republicans will hold a caucus to determine upon a line of policy, especially with reference to the tariff, and until after the exchange of views which this conference will permit, no step is likely to be taken which will commit the party to any position on any question of political significance.

Speaker Reed called the house together at noon. The reading of the president's message was then followed.

The opening week promises to see the house put its shoulder to the wheel of the regular appropriation bills. Chairman Cannon and the committee on appropriations were at work all last week and it is their earnest intention to pass two and possibly three of the bills before Christmas holidays. The pension and legislative appropriation bills are about ready and work on one or the other of these will be begun in the house before the week closes. The pension bill, although it carries a larger amount of money than any of the other supply bills, is very brief and unless some political discussion is precipitated is not likely to consume much time in its consideration. Beyond these two bills nothing is in sight at present. It is, of course, not unlikely that the committee on rules will provide something for the house to do in case the committee on appropriations is not prepared to go ahead with either of these appropriation bills. The course of the legislation so far as the important measures on the calendar is concerned (like the Pacific railroad fund bill, the Nicaragua canal bill etc.), will be determined entirely by the rules committee. But it is safe to assume that nothing will be allowed to block the appropriation bills as they are reported for action. They always have the right of way at the short session.

HANNA THE CENTRAL FIGURE.

Statesmen Speculating Regarding the Coming Administration.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Clouds of speculation are afloat among the statesmen gathered here dealing with the policies of the new administration to be inaugurated on the 4th of March and with the personnel of the cabinet. It was unanimously conceded that the Republican program was to ignore the Dingley tariff bill and to summon an extra session of the Fifty-fifth congress for the 15th of March for the purpose of passing a new tariff measure, so these features of the situation which have absorbed the attention of politicians recently had ceased to be of interest.

The central figure is Mr. Marcus A. Hanna, who is looked upon here as the advance agent of the McKinley administration, with a commission to feel the the pulse of congress and to communicate the policy of the president-elect to the leaders. Sunday he drove with Senators Sherman and Proctor. Many noted politicians have talked to him. Mr. Hanna called on the president Saturday.

S. W. Woodward, a prominent business man, has been asked to be chairman of the inauguration committee.

Interest in the affairs of the Hawaiian republic has been reckoned by the dinner which was given Saturday night by ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster to Mr. Hanna. The guests, who numbered a dozen, included the Hawaiian minister of foreign affairs, Mr. Cooper, who is in the city; Minister Hatch and Secretary Hastings of the Hawaiian legation, and half a dozen members of the senate committee on foreign relations, among them Senators Morgan, Hale and Lodge, who are advocates of annexation. It is believed that the movement for annexation is to be brought forward again with the advent of the next administration and it is likely to be one of the leading questions with which President McKinley and the Fifty-fifth congress will have to deal.

WANT CORBETT-FITZ FIGHT.

The San Francisco Club Defends Referee Earp's Action.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—There is a prospect that Corbett and Fitzsimmons may be brought together in this city in a ten round contest. The Olympic Athletic club, one of the oldest and most influential institutions of the city, has offered the men $15,000 to fight ten rounds under its management. Corbett has accepted the proposition, which will now be laid before Fitzsimmons.

The directors of the National Athletic club have sent out the following statement explaining the club's position relative to the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey contest:

"To protect the good name of the club and as a matter of justice to the public we left nothing undone to determine the correctness of the claim made by Fitzsimmons that Referee Earp had robbed him of the decision over Sharkey. A committee of six physicians, two of whom were designated by the morning papers, examined Sharkey and concurred in saying that he had been injured.

"Apart from the medical examination ordered by the club, the precaution was taken to stop payment of the check for $10,000 so that if fraud had been perpetrated by anybody upon the club and the public, an investigation would reveal the same and the guilty party brought to justice. The matter is now in the hands of the court and the club is awaiting anxiously the result of the judicial inquiry."

TOOK ONE VICTIM'S NAME.

The Australian Murderer Will Be Arrested at San Francisco.

SIDNEY, Dec. 7.—A solution has been found for the mystery surrounding the disappearance of two persons and the unearthing of the body of one of them at Linden. The body of the second missing man has now also been unearthed and has been identified as Captain Weller.

It was under the name of Captain Weller that the man, who is under suspicion in connection with the case, sailed for San Francisco. A police officer will now go to England to arrange for the extradition of this man when he is arrested.

GOMERS TO SPEAK IN CHURCH.

A Cincinnati Preacher Has Announced His Intention of Inviting Him.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow, pastor of the Vine Street Congational church, has announced his intention of inviting Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, to deliver an address in his church one evening during the convention of the federation. It is the general belief among local labor officials that President Gompers will accept the invitation.

The pastor of this church has done a great deal for labor and he is deeply interested in social and economic questions.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, DEC. 7.

STRANGE to say little is heard of gubernatorial candidates. Not even a Democratic patriot has announced his willingness to be sacrificed.

MR. DINGLEY has been talking in a strain which prompts the belief that he will occupy his seat in congress wearing a good sized knife in his sleeve.

THE American people are not sticklers for form. They don't care a rap how congress does it or who supports the measure, but they do want a protective law as soon as possible.

IF half the reports coming from Cuba be true the fighting on the island has been of the most desperate character, and the rebellion has taken on the importance of a great war.

THE editor who suggested that Major McKinley should refuse to give out an office until a tariff bill is passed has the most level kind of a head, and deserves official recognition at the first cabinet meeting.

THE deficiency to date is $179,076,240. It is the record of Democracy, the proof that it was not worthy of the trust given it by the American people. A better example of official worthlessness would be hard, indeed, to find.

IF you have Christmas presents to buy, and who is there who has not, patronize the live, energetic business men who advertise. When a man tells the public what he has, you can depend on it he is not ashamed of his stock.

THE commercial agencies in their reports last week notice the abandonment of two combinations "by which the iron trade was retarded." Now if congress would but compel the early death of all trusts trade would revive with a rush.

THE congressmen, who assembled in Washington today, can serve their country in no better way than to get away from the deficit. It is an expensive thing, this child of Democracy, and it exists only because the government allows it.

THE Youngstown Telegram asks if Ohio will be represented in the cabinet, and then sensibly replies that it will. The Telegram should never have doubted it when it can almost hear, day after day, the hammering of the cabinet makers in Canton.

THE FUTURE OF FREE TRADE.

So far as this country is concerned the future of free trade seems black and cheerless. There is not among the signs of the times one redeeming ray of hope. From every side comes demands from the people which indicates a sentiment not only opposing the pet doctrine of Democracy, but favoring some system that will forever do away with the nonsense which cost this country so many millions of dollars. The Wilson bill was intended as the first step, but it proved so much of a failure that it is not at all likely its friends will have an opportunity in many years to repeat the experiment. This is proven by the vote of a few weeks ago. The great manufacturing districts gave mighty majorities for protection, and the district of Mr. Wilson sent a Republican to congress, while Major McKinley carried the home county of Mr. Mills, in Texas. Only where silver overshadowed every other issue were the Democrats successful. There is a world of meaning in the action of the people, a meaning which demands tariff legislation at the earliest moment consistent with good judgment. They gave free trade no encouragement, and if the Republican party can replace the deplorable condition of the present by wise and judicious laws with protection as a basis, the favorite theory of Mr. Cleveland and his professor friends will not raise its head to blast the country in the next quarter century.

In his annual report, issued Saturday, the secretary notes that 28 vessels have been authorized since March 4, 1893, and says the increase is not by any means satisfactory.

Mountain Climbing.

In a sketch of Sir William Martin Conway, the mountain climber and explorer of the Himalayas, The English Illustrated Magazine says that he has the "climber's walk"—that is, a gentle roll of the body, with no unequal steps, but swinging his legs with rhythmic precision. He is a slim man, but tough, full of energy and with iron muscles. When climbing the Himalayas, he spent 84 days on snow and glacier. During that time he traversed from end to end the three longest known glaciers in the world outside the polar regions and landed on the summit of Pioneer peak, 22,000 feet high, the greatest height yet reached by man.

A BROTHER'S DEFENSE.

DID NOT PACK SUPREME COURT.

He Quotes Letters From Cox and Boutwell Regarding the Appointments of Bradley and Strong—It Involved Reverse of the Legal Tender Decision.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 7.—Senator George F. Hoar has written a long letter defending his brother, the late E. R. Hoar, attorney general in the Grant cabinet, from attacks made during the recent presidential campaign by ex-Secretary Fairchild and others that the supreme court of the United States had been packed to reverse the decision in Hepburn vs Griswold, in which the court held the legal tender act unconstitutional.

After entering into details concerning the matter, and quoting liberally from the records, Senator Hoar makes public two letters just received from two of the members of the cabinet of President Grant. Says Senator Hoar in this connection:

"I have received this letter from Governor Cox. He was then secretary of the interior in Grant's cabinet. He dwelt in the same house with Attorney General Hoar during the summer until the meeting of congress on the 1st of December, 1869, and was the judge's intimate personal friend. He would have known of this matter if it had been known, both as a member of the cabinet and from his familiar with Judge Hoar." The letter is dated from Cincinnati, Nov. 6, and in it Governor Cox says: "I have always regarded the charge that the supreme court was packed to reverse the legal tender decision in Hepburn vs Griswold, as one of the most curious instances of declaring an unwarranted conclusion from a mere coincidence every incident pertaining to the appointment of judges to fill the vacancies was, so far as my recollection can reach, exactly what high minded men would wish, exactly what all who know Judge Hoar would expect from an attorney general having high ideals of public duty.

"I can recall some discussion of the character and qualities of Judge Strong and Bradley among members of the cabinet, but not a single word of reference to their opinions on legal tender question or to any case pending, or likely to be pending in the supreme court. Nothing could be plainer that the attorney general was earnestly determined to recommend only such men as combined the qualities of able lawyers with those of perfectly pure, single-minded and upright citizens. When the nominations were made we felt that such men had been selected.

"My personal convictions then were and still are, that the opinion of Chief Justice Chase in Hepburn vs Griswold, as well as in the subsequent legal tender cases, so called, was the better one in law, and a sounder one on statesmanship, as well as a solid barrier against all forms of fictitious or 'fiat' money."

Senator Hoar then says: "Governor Cox resigned his place in the cabinet not long after this transaction, stating in a public statement his reasons for resigning, that he had not been duly supported by the president in his attempts to protect the rights of the United States against fraud."

He then gives a letter from Governor Boutwell, in which he says:

"The charge to which you call my attention to is this: That in the year 1870 the supreme court was packed by President Grant for the purpose of reversing the legal tender decision in the case of Hepburn vs Griswold and when the names Messrs. Strong and Bradley were sent to the senate Feb. 7, 1870, the nature of the decision in the above named case, although it had not been announced from the bench, was known to the cabinet and president.

"I was a member of President Grant's cabinet at the time mentioned, and I was present at one or more cabinet meetings when the subject was considered and when opinions were expressed as to the fitness of Messrs. Strong and Bradley for the vacant places upon the bench of the supreme court. The legal tender controversy was not spoken of, nor in any manner referred to by the president or by any member of the cabinet."

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

The Senate and House Convened at Noon Today.

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT READ.

Senators Lodge and Chandler Determined to Push the Immigration Bill. Many Members Believe That Appropriation Measures Only Will Pass.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Vice President Stevenson called the senate to order at noon. The first day of the session was devoted almost entirely to receiving the president's message. Immediately after the opening prayer committees were appointed to notify the president and the house of representatives that the senate was organized and ready to receive communications and proceed with business.

The first week of the session is not expected to be productive of important results in a legislative way. There are many senators who think that but little or nothing should be done beyond the passage of the appropriation bills at this session, and as these measures necessarily originate in the house, there will be a disposition to postpone the season of activity until some of these bills can be received from the other end of the capitol. The probabilities are that the daily sessions at the beginning will be comparatively brief, and that the senate will content itself with four days work each week.

The calendar presents a wide range of material for consideration in case the senate shows a disposition to busy itself. In this is included the immigration bill, which is the "unfinished business," the Pacific railroad funding bill, the statehood bills, and the Dingley tariff and bond bills, as well as the tariff and Hawaiian questions.

Senators Lodge and Chandler have announced their determination to press the immigration bill to a vote as speedily as they can. It will be the first regular business to be taken up and cannot be displaced except by vote or unanimous consent. They hope to get the bill through before the holidays. It is also possible that the president's message may suggest subjects for speeches, and there are those who predict that the Cuban question will receive vigorous attention from the beginning of the session.

It is generally agreed that the Republicans will hold a caucus to determine upon a line of policy, especially with reference to the tariff, and until after the exchange of views which this conference will permit, no step is likely to be taken which will commit the party to any position on any question of political significance.

Speaker Reed called the house together at noon. The reading of the president's message was then followed.

The opening week promises to see the house put its shoulder to the wheel of the regular appropriation bills. Chairman Cannon and the committee on appropriations were at work all last week and it is their earnest intention to pass two and possibly three of the bills before Christmas holidays. The pension and legislative appropriation bills are about ready and work on one or the other of these will be begun in the house before the week closes. The pension bill, although it carries a larger amount of money than any of the other supply bills, is very brief and unless some political discussion is precipitated is not likely to consume much time in its consideration. Beyond these two bills nothing is in sight at present. It is, of course, not unlikely that the committee on rules will provide something for the house to do in case the committee on appropriations is not prepared to go ahead with either of these appropriation bills. The course of the legislation so far as the important measures on the calendar is concerned (like the Pacific railroad fund bill, the Nicaragua canal bill etc.), will be determined entirely by the rules committee. But it is safe to assume that nothing will be allowed to block the appropriation bills as they are reported for action. They always have the right of way at the short session.

HANNA THE CENTRAL FIGURE.

Statesmen Speculating Regarding the Coming Administration.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Clouds of speculation are afloat among the statesmen gathered here dealing with the policies of the new administration to be inaugurated on the 4th of March and with the personnel of the cabinet. It was unanimously conceded that the Republican program was to ignore the Dingley tariff bill and to summon an extra session of the Fifty-fifth congress for the 15th of March for the purpose of passing a new tariff measure, so these features of the situation which have absorbed the attention of politicians recently had ceased to be of interest.

The central figure is Mr. Marcus A. Hanna, who is looked upon here as the advance agent of the McKinley administration, with a commission to feel the the pulse of congress and to communicate the policy of the president-elect to the leaders. Sunday he drove with Senators Sherman and Proctor. Many noted politicians have talked to him. Mr. Hanna called on the president Saturday.

S. W. Woodward, a prominent business man, has been asked to be chairman of the inauguration committee.

Interest in the affairs of the Hawaiian republic has been reckoned by the dinner which was given Saturday night by ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster to Mr. Hanna. The guests, who numbered a dozen, included the Hawaiian minister of foreign affairs, Mr. Cooper, who is in the city; Minister Hatch and Secretary Hastings of the Hawaiian legation, and half a dozen members of the senate committee on foreign relations, among them Senators Morgan, Hale and Lodge, who are advocates of annexation. It is believed that the movement for annexation is to be brought forward again with the advent of the next administration and it is likely to be one of the leading questions with which President McKinley and the Fifty-fifth congress will have to deal.

WANT CORBETT-FITZ FIGHT.

The San Francisco Club Defends Referee Earp's Action.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—There is a prospect that Corbett and Fitzsimmons may be brought together in this city in a ten round contest. The Olympic Athletic club, one of the oldest and most influential institutions of the city, has offered the men $15,000 to fight ten rounds under its management. Corbett has accepted the proposition, which will now be laid before Fitzsimmons.

The directors of the National Athletic club have sent out the following statement explaining the club's position relative to the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey contest:

"To protect the good name of the club and as a matter of justice to the public we left nothing undone to determine the correctness of the claim made by Fitzsimmons that Referee Earp had robbed him of the decision over Sharkey. A committee of six physicians, two of whom were designated by the morning papers, examined Sharkey and concurred in saying that he had been injured.

"Apart from the medical examination ordered by the club, the precaution was taken to stop payment of the check for $10,000 so that if fraud had been perpetrated by anybody upon the club and the public, an investigation would reveal the same and the guilty party brought to justice. The matter is now in the hands of the court and the club is awaiting anxiously the result of the judicial inquiry."

TOOK ONE VICTIM'S NAME.

The Australian Murderer Will Be Arrested at San Francisco.

SIDNEY, Dec. 7.—A solution has been found for the mystery surrounding the disappearance of two persons and the unearthing of the body of one of them at Linden. The body of the second missing man has now also been unearthed and has been identified as Captain Weller.

It was under the name of Captain Weller that the man, who is under suspicion in connection with the case, sailed for San Francisco. A police officer will now go to England to arrange for the extradition of this man when he is arrested.

It is the general belief among local labor officials that President Gompers will accept the invitation.

The pastor of this church has done a great deal for labor and he is deeply interested in social and economic questions.

DODGING GEN. MACEO.

Weyler Very Much Afraid of Being Trapped.

CUBANS ON BOTH SIDES OF HIM.

They Have Forced the Trocha and Daily Skirmishes Are Occurring—Spanish Loss Great—Five Non-Combatants, Three Being Women, Brutally Murdered.

KEY WEST, Dec. 7.—The steamer Whitney has brought Havana news in relation to Maceo and Weyler. Passengers state that Weyler himself is now encamped ten miles from Artemisa and his army is scattered along the trocha and through the Pinar del Rio district. When Maceo retreated from Weyler in his first campaign his plan was to surprise Weyler at the first opportunity and now Maceo has his army on either side of Weyler and they are having daily skirmishes.

Small bands have crossed the trocha into Havana district and are attacking the outpost and villages of that province.

Insurgents numbering 7,000 are encamped in Havana province, 20 miles from Havana, and will go to Maceo's assistance when needed. Spies in Havana are keeping the insurgents posted as to the movements of the Spanish troops.

A movement is on foot to capture Weyler if he shall attempt to go to Havana by rail. Firemen and volunteers in Havana are being sent to Weyler's relief. Heretofore these troops were used in the defense of the city.

Since Tuesday's raid on Guanabacoa, the city has been attacked almost every night, and Thursday night 250 Cuban cavalry rode for two hours through the city. The damage done amounts to 36 houses burned and a large quantity of supplies and ammunition seized, also a large number of mules loaded and ready to leave the city were taken.

Weyler is pressing forward into the hills of Pinar del Rio very cautiously to avoid giving Maceo a chance to entrap him. Numerous guerrilla engagements have taken place in the rear and flanks of Weyler's army. That the Spanish loss in these has been considerable is shown by the number of wounded soldiers brought into the city within the post three days. It is said that Spanish field hospitals also are full of sick and wounded men. The trocha was forced about ten miles from the southern end by 100 Cubans.

A party of five pacificos, three of them women, were met by a Spanish column near Artemisa and all shot or bayoneted. They were charged with giving food to the Cubans.

Further Havana advices report an excited conflict of opinion there as to whether the forcing of the trocha by the Cubans was guerrilla bands or by the vanguard of Maceo's army in a movement to unite with Gomez. Spaniards have given no definite news from the front for a week and at the same time have redoubled their censorship of the press.

Sharp firing has been heard again in Havana from the neighborhood of Guanabacoa and other suburbs of that section, and all Havana is excited over the occurrence.

Over 500 refugees have passed into the city during the past five days from that section fearing for their lives during the fights between the soldiers and the insurgents.

Nearly all the Havana volunteers have gone to the front, but as fast as they rout the guerrillas in one place they encounter them in another, making a succession of running fights, all within five to ten miles of the city. About 100 soldiers have been killed or wounded so far in these engagements.

ELECTION OFFICERS DISCHARGED.

They Made a Mistake Which Cost a Candidate Some Votes.

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 7.—The judges of election in the Fifth ward of this city have learned that the provisions of the Australian ballot must be enforced. As a result of their failing to use pasters over the name of W. K. Miller, deceased, as an elector on the Republican ticket 68 ballots cast in this precinct were thrown out.

Secretary of State Taylor caused an investigation to be made, which resulted in showing that the error was not the result of carelessness, but arose through the Republican member of the board, John J. Blanford, insisting that a letter which he had received from P. C Given, chairman of the Republican committee, meant that the pasters were not to be used. Philip Boegner, the Democratic member, was of the opinion that the pasters should have gone on, but as this was his first time on a board, he gave way. Secretary of State Taylor, after examining all of the evidence, instructed the county board to dismiss them from sitting on the board.

A NEW OHIO RAILROAD.

Brice Is Behind the Scheme to Parallel the C. H. & D.

LIMA, O., Dec. 7.—Articles of incorporation for the Dayton Northern Railway company, with general offices to be located here, has been filed. The capital stock is $100,000 and the incorporators are James B. Townsend, W. B. Richie, C. N. Haskell, Edward R. Thomas, W. C. Brown and J. R. Megrue.

The same power which built the Lima Northern is behind the new move, and it means that if the Ohio Southern gets into other hands the Lima Northern will be built to Cincinnati and the Lake Erie and Western will use the road to Franklin, join the Northern Ohio and Lima Northern and will enter Cincinnati together.

The line is a Brice move, and when executed the paralleling of the powerful Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton will be effected.

A GREENSBURG MAN'S SEARCH.

He Has Spent His Money Hunting For a Kidnaped Daughter.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7.—W. A. Clark of Greensburg, Pa., well educated and several years ago chief burgess and then auditor of his town, has applied at the Bethel for employment. He told a pathetic story. Two years ago, he said, his motherless daughter, then 12 years old, mysteriously disappeared.

There were indications that she had been kidnapped and Mr. Clark at once began to search for her. He abondoned his business and during the last two years has traversed five states in search of the lost one. His money is gone. He wants work in order that he may have the means to continue his quest.

Victim of a Potato Bug.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Dec. 7.—Rev. Paul Ladd, a colored minister of this city, died from a strange cause. Several months ago he planted a patch of potatoes, and the vines being covered with potato bugs he proceeded to gather them into the pan and burn them. Unfortunately he inhaled some of the flames, which seem to have been a deadly poison, for at once his lungs became strangely affected, and he sank into a consumptive state, which resulted in his death.

A Suit Against a Minister.

NEWARK, O., Dec. 7.—James T. Cochran of the southwestern part of the county has sued Rev. J. N. Life of the Hebron M. E. church to recover $10,000. Plaintiff sought to be reinstated in church and alleges that the minister announced from the pulpit that if plaintiff persisted in it he, the minister, would make disclosures that would send the plaintiff to the penitentiary.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 7.—Several hundred striking Italian miners are causing trouble at the Forest Coal company's mine at Archibald, a few miles north of this city and excitement there is intense. Bloodshed has been narrowly averted by the employment of armed detectives to preserve order.

The Italians objected to the deduction from their pay of the cost of the employment of expert overseers, who were keeping watch over the miners to prevent the robbing of pillars in the mines. They also opposed the removal of coal stored in 40 cars in the drift of the mine. The detectives dispersed the men and made eight arrests.

GOMPERS LIKELY TO WIN.

Other Candidates Want His Place—Federation Covention Next Week.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—One week from today the sixteenth annual convention of the Americation Federation of Labor meets here for a session of eight to ten days. The two English representatives have already arrived. There will be only 150 delegates representing a membership of over 600,000, as follows;

From national and international unions for less than 4,000 members, 1 delegate; 4,000 to 8,000 members, 2 delegates; 8,000 to 16,000 members, 3 delegates; 16,000 to 32,000 members, 4 delegates; 32,000 to 64,000, 5 delegates, and so on. But each delegate casts one vote for each 100 members he represents. The paramount question this year will be to perfect a more complete organization of all the workingmen. More strenuous efforts will be made to have the eight hour law go into effect May 1. The present officers are:

President, Samuel Gompers; vice presidents, P. J. Maguire, James Duncan and James O'Conneil; secretary, August McCraith; treasurer, John B. Lennon.

There are candidates as usual for Gompers' piece, but it is the general opinion that he will be re-elected. He was president for the first 13 years of the Federation, and after one year of service by John McBride succeeded to his old place. The local committee has secured $2,000 for the expenses and entertainment of the convention.

A RIVAL OF CARNEGIE.

Joen Rockefeller Will Build a Big Plant In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—John D. Rockefeller is seeking to outdo Andrew Carnegie as an iron king and has plans already matured and about to be carried out aiming at that end. The Standard

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Oil company, directed by Rockefeller, will be the foe of the Scotchman. This company has purchased in South Chicago, along the shores of Lake Michigan and at the mouth of the Calumet river, a plot of ground several acres in extent and with a water frontage of 3,200 feet. On this, it is said, rolling mills will be erected to cost $10,000,000, possibly twice that amount.

With this plant for manufacture, with the vast mines in the Mesaba region for the raw product, and with 18 huge lake vessels to carry the ore to the very doors of the works—all owned by the Rockefeller company, that corporation may be able to dictate terms to Mr. Carnegie and his associates instead of being dictated to.

DODGING GEN. MACEO.

Weyler Very Much Afraid of Being Trapped.

CUBANS ON BOTH SIDES OF HIM.

They Have Forced the Trocha and Daily Skirmishes Are Occurring—Spanish Loss Great—Five Non-Combatants, Three Being Women, Brutally Murdered.

KEY WEST, Dec. 7.—The steamer Whitney has brought Havana news in relation to Maceo and Weyler. Passengers state that Weyler himself is now encamped ten miles from Artemisa and his army is scattered along the trocha and through the Pinar del Rio district. When Maceo retreated from Weyler in his first campaign his plan was to surprise Weyler at the first opportunity and now Maceo has his army on either side of Weyler and they are having daily skirmishes.

Small bands have crossed the trocha into Havana district and are attacking the outpost and villages of that province.

Insurgents numbering 7,000 are encamped in Havana province, 20 miles from Havana, and will go to Maceo's assistance when needed. Spies in Havana are keeping the insurgents posted as to the movements of the Spanish troops.

A movement is on foot to capture Weyler if he shall attempt to go to Havana by rail. Firemen and volunteers in Havana are being sent to Weyler's relief. Heretofore these troops were used in the defense of the city.

Since Tuesday's raid on Guanabacoa, the city has been attacked almost every night, and Thursday night 250 Cuban cavalry rode for two hours through the city. The damage done amounts to 36 houses burned and a large quantity of supplies and ammunition seized, also a large number of mules loaded and ready to leave the city were taken.

Weyler is pressing forward into the hills of Pinar del Rio very cautiously to avoid giving Maceo a chance to entrap him. Numerous guerrilla engagements have taken place in the rear and flanks of Weyler's army. That the Spanish loss in these has been considerable is shown by the number of wounded soldiers brought into the city within the post three days. It is said that Spanish field hospitals also are full of sick and wounded men. The trocha was forced about ten miles from the southern end by 100 Cubans.

A party of five pacificos, three of them women, were met by a Spanish column near Artemisa and all shot or bayoneted. They were charged with giving food to the Cubans.

Further Havana advices report an excited conflict of opinion there as to whether the forcing of the trocha by the Cubans was guerrilla bands or by the vanguard of Maceo's army in a movement to unite with Gomez. Spaniards have given no definite news from the front for a week and at the same time have redoubled their censorship of the press.

Sharp firing has been heard again in Havana from the neighborhood of Guanabacoa and other suburbs of that section, and all Havana is excited over the occurrence.

Over 500 refugees have passed into the city during the past five days from that section fearing for their lives during the fights between the soldiers and the insurgents.

Nearly all the Havana volunteers have gone to the front, but as fast as they rout the guerrillas in one place they encounter them in another, making a succession of running fights, all within five to ten miles of the city. About 100 soldiers have been killed or wounded so far in these engagements.

ELECTION OFFICERS DISCHARGED.

They Made a Mistake Which Cost a Candidate Some Votes.

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 7.—The judges of election in the Fifth ward of this city have learned that the provisions of the Australian ballot must be enforced. As a result of their failing to use pasters over the name of W. K. Miller, deceased, as an elector on the Republican ticket 68 ballots cast in this precinct were thrown out.

Secretary of State Taylor caused an investigation to be made, which resulted in showing that the error was not the result of carelessness, but arose through the Republican member of the board, John J. Blanford, insisting that a letter which he had received from P. C Given, chairman of the Republican committee, meant that the pasters were not to be used. Philip Boegner, the Democratic member, was of the opinion that the pasters should have gone on, but as this was his first time on a board, he gave way. Secretary of State Taylor, after examining all of the evidence, instructed the county board to dismiss them from sitting on the board.

A NEW OHIO RAILROAD.

Brice Is Behind the Scheme to Parallel the C. H. & D.

LIMA, O., Dec. 7.—Articles of incorporation for the Dayton Northern Railway company, with general offices to be located here, has been filed. The capital stock is $100,000 and the incorporators are James B. Townsend, W. B. Richie, C. N. Haskell, Edward R. Thomas, W. C. Brown and J. R. Megrue.

The same power which built the Lima Northern is behind the new move, and it means that if the Ohio Southern gets into other hands the Lima Northern will be built to Cincinnati and the Lake Erie and Western will use the road to Franklin, join the Northern Ohio and Lima Northern and will enter Cincinnati together.

The line is a Brice move, and when executed the paralleling of the powerful Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton will be effected.

A GREENSBURG MAN'S SEARCH.

He Has Spent His Money Hunting For a Kidnaped Daughter.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 7.—W. A. Clark of Greensburg, Pa., well educated and several years ago chief burgess and then auditor of his town, has applied at the Bethel for employment. He told a pathetic story. Two years ago, he said, his motherless daughter, then 12 years old, mysteriously disappeared.

There were indications that she had been kidnapped and Mr. Clark at once began to search for her. He abondoned his business and during the last two years has traversed five states in search of the lost one. His money is gone. He wants work in order that he may have the means to continue his quest.

Victim of a Potato Bug.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Dec. 7.—Rev. Paul Ladd, a colored minister of this city, died from a strange cause. Several months ago he planted a patch of potatoes, and the vines being covered with potato bugs he proceeded to gather them into the pan and burn them. Unfortunately he inhaled some of the flames, which seem to have been a deadly poison, for at once his lungs became strangely affected, and he sank into a consumptive state, which resulted in his death.

A Suit Against a Minister.

NEWARK, O., Dec. 7.—James T. Cochran of the southwestern part of the county has sued Rev. J. N. Life of the Hebron M. E. church to recover $10,000. Plaintiff sought to be reinstated in church and alleges that the minister announced from the pulpit that if plaintiff persisted in it he, the minister, would make disclosures that would send the plaintiff to the penitentiary.

A Newark Woman's Crime.

NEWARK, O., Dec. 7.—Mrs. Adolph Gleisner, wife of a glassblower. Saturday killed her infant son and then shot horself. The woman arose from bed, took the child to an upper room and shot it three times with a revolver. Then she fired a bullet into her own mouth. She will probably die. It is believed the woman was temporarily insane.

Failure at Winchester.

WINCHESTER, O., Dec. 7.—Deputy Sheriff McKee has levied on the goods of the H. H. Carroll company, clothing merchants. There are claims, it is said, amounting to $9,000 against the firm. Mr. Carroll, the head of the firm, attributes the failure to slow-paying debtors.

Two Boys Drowned.

DELAWARE, O., Dec. 7.—James, son of Mary Nelson, a widow, and Robert, son of Michael Barnwell, employed on the Big Four, both aged 13, broke through the ice on Greenwood lake and were drowned.

TROUBLE WITH ITALIANS.

Their Object to Paying For Hire of Mine Overseers.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 7.—Several hundred striking Italian miners are causing trouble at the Forest Coal company's mine at Archibald, a few miles north of this city and excitement there is intense. Bloodshed has been narrowly averted by the employment of armed detectives to preserve order.

The Italians objected to the deduction from their pay of the cost of the employment of expert overseers, who were keeping watch over the miners to prevent the robbing of pillars in the mines. They also opposed the removal of coal stored in 40 cars in the drift of the mine. The detectives dispersed the men and made eight arrests.

Senator Faulkner May Resign.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 7.—The rumor is current throughout this state that Senator Faulker will resign his seat as United States senator this winter to accept a very lucrative offer as attorney for a New York corporation.

Maceo Said to Be In New York.

MADRID, Dec. 7.—A report reaches here from Havana that Antonio Maceo has gone to New York to consult with the Cuban revolutionary committee here.

GOMPERS LIKELY TO WIN.

Other Candidates Want His Place—Federation Covention Next Week.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—One week from today the sixteenth annual convention of the Americation Federation of Labor meets here for a session of eight to ten days. The two English representatives have already arrived. There will be only 150 delegates representing a membership of over 600,000, as follows;

From national and international unions for less than 4,000 members, 1 delegate; 4,000 to 8,000 members, 2 delegates; 8,000 to 16,000 members, 3 delegates; 16,000 to 32,000 members, 4 delegates; 32,000 to 64,000, 5 delegates, and so on. But each delegate casts one vote for each 100 members he represents. The paramount question this year will be to perfect a more complete organization of all the workingmen. More strenuous efforts will be made to have the eight hour law go into effect May 1. The present officers are:

President, Samuel Gompers; vice presidents, P. J. Maguire, James Duncan and James O'Connell; secretary, August McCraith; treasurer, John B. Lennon.

There are candidates as usual for Gompers' piece, but it is the general opinion that he will be re-elected. He was president for the first 13 years of the Federation, and after one year of service by John McBride succeeded to his old place. The local committee has secured $2,000 for the expenses and entertainment of the convention.

A RIVAL OF CARNEGIE.

Joen Rockefeller Will Build a Big Plant In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—John D. Rockefeller is seeking to outdo Andrew Carnegie as an iron king and has plans already matured and about to be carried out aiming at that end. The Standard

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Oil company, directed by Rockefeller, will be the foe of the Scotchman. This company has purchased in South Chicago, along the shores of Lake Michigan and at the mouth of the Calumet river, a plot of ground several acres in extent and with a water frontage of 3,200 feet. On this, it is said, rolling mills will be erected to cost $10,000,000, possibly twice that amount.

With this plant for manufacture, with the vast mines in the Mesaba region for the raw product, and with 18 huge lake vessels to carry the ore to the very doors of the works—all owned by the Rockefeller company, that corporation may be able to dictate terms to Mr. Carnegie and his associates instead of being dictated to.

NOT ENOUGH OFFICERS

The City Is Too Large For the Force.

MAYOR GILBERT HAS A PLAN

He Would Have the New Sanitary Policeman and Plumbing Inspector Invested With Police Power—No Protection In the Morning.

The city has grown beyond the size of its police force, and Mayor Gilbert believes there should be more protection.

It is customary to have one officer for every 2,000 people, yet there are only four men regularly on duty in the city. From six in the morning until noon there is not a policeman on the streets. The city is three miles long, and when the four men on duty cover all this territory they have more then enough to keep their time occupied. The mayor has a plan, and he thinks it will be a success. He would have the sanitary policeman and plumbing inspector endowed with police power, in order that they may in a measure make up for the small number of policemen. Some plumbers want the two offices in the gift of the board filled by one man at an increased salary, but that the mayor does not favor because it would be too much work to allow any part of it being done well. He believes the addition of the officers he suggests would make the force much more effective.

Beaty, Roche and Whiting, the Hamiltons, Eva Thatcher Decoursey, Tom Walsh and Marie Tremaine, and is a good one. From a scenic standpoint the "Pay Train" is without a rival, and the low prices should serve to pack the house. *

WELLSVILLE.

AN OLD MINISTER DEAD.

Rev. J. Walkey Was Laid to Rest This Morning.

Word was received here Saturday evening of the death of Rev. J. W. Walkey, late pastor of the Evangelical church. Rev. Walkey suffered during the last few months of his pastorate with stomache trouble, and was compelled to resign his charge, and asked conference for a vacation of a year. It was granted, and he removed to Stoutsville, where he had friends, with the hope that a change from active duties would prove beneficial; but he grew gradually worse, and the end came Saturday. Rev. Walkey was one of the oldest and best known ministers of the Evangelical Association, and stood high in the councils of the church, and had continously occupied the pulpit for 36 years. He was an able and earnest talker, kind and faithful in his manner toward the members of his congregation, and beloved by all. He was 68 years old and leaves a wife and one son. His funeral took place this morning at Stoutsville.

LOST A FIVE.

A Worshiper Dropped It and It Vanished From View.

At the Methodist Protestant church yesterday there was a happening which shows the presence of dishonesty even in the sanctuary. The collection was being taken, and a worshiper desiring to contribute took a roll of bills from his pocket. Selecting a dollar he put it in the basket, and accidentally dropped a five on the floor. His attention being attracted at that moment he did not pick it up, and when he looked for it a few minutes afterward it was gone. He believes he knows who got the money, and if it is not returned Mayor Jones will be asked to investigate.

CLARA JAVENS DEAD.

The afflicted family have the sympathy of many friends.

TALKED TO THE JUNIORS.

Doctor Reager Gave the Mechanics a Good Sermon.

Last night Doctor Reager at the Methodist Episcopal church preached an interesting sermon to the Junior Mechanics. The church was crowded, a large number of Mechanics from East Liverpool being present. Doctor Reager dwelt at some length upon the aims of the order, and remembered the good work it has done. The electric light recently placed in the church, caused some annoyance by refusing to burn at times.

NEW LIGHTS

The light committee are placing a number of lights in different parts of town. One has been put at Broadway and Seventh, another at Ninth and Commerce, and one in Nicholson addition. Other parts of town will be lighted soon. So far so good, but council can endear itself still farther to the people by providing dry crossings on unpaved streets.

NOT ENOUGH OFFICERS

The City Is Too Large For the Force.

MAYOR GILBERT HAS A PLAN

He Would Have the New Sanitary Policeman and Plumbing Inspector Invested With Police Power—No Protection In the Morning.

The city has grown beyond the size of its police force, and Mayor Gilbert believes there should be more protection.

It is customary to have one officer for every 2,000 people, yet there are only four men regularly on duty in the city. From six in the morning until noon there is not a policeman on the streets. The city is three miles long, and when the four men on duty cover all this territory they have more then enough to keep their time occupied. The mayor has a plan, and he thinks it will be a success. He would have the sanitary policeman and plumbing inspector endowed with police power, in order that they may in a measure make up for the small number of policemen. Some plumbers want the two offices in the gift of the board filled by one man at an increased salary, but that the mayor does not favor because it would be too much work to allow any part of it being done well. He believes the addition of the officers he suggests would make the force much more effective.

WELLSVILLE.

AN OLD MINISTER DEAD.

Rev. J. Walkey Was Laid to Rest This Morning.

Word was received here Saturday evening of the death of Rev. J. W. Walkey, late pastor of the Evangelical church. Rev. Walkey suffered during the last few months of his pastorate with stomache trouble, and was compelled to resign his charge, and asked conference for a vacation of a year. It was granted, and he removed to Stoutsville, where he had friends, with the hope that a change from active duties would prove beneficial; but he grew gradually worse, and the end came Saturday. Rev. Walkey was one of the oldest and best known ministers of the Evangelical Association, and stood high in the councils of the church, and had continously occupied the pulpit for 36 years. He was an able and earnest talker, kind and faithful in his manner toward the members of his congregation, and beloved by all. He was 68 years old and leaves a wife and one son. His funeral took place this morning at Stoutsville.

LOST A FIVE.

A Worshiper Dropped It and It Vanished From View.

At the Methodist Protestant church yesterday there was a happening which shows the presence of dishonesty even in the sanctuary. The collection was being taken, and a worshiper desiring to contribute took a roll of bills from his pocket. Selecting a dollar he put it in the basket, and accidentally dropped a five on the floor. His attention being attracted at that moment he did not pick it up, and when he looked for it a few minutes afterward it was gone. He believes he knows who got the money, and if it is not returned Mayor Jones will be asked to investigate.

TALKED TO THE JUNIORS.

Doctor Reager Gave the Mechanics a Good Sermon.

Last night Doctor Reager at the Methodist Episcopal church preached an interesting sermon to the Junior Mechanics. The church was crowded, a large number of Mechanics from East Liverpool being present. Doctor Reager dwelt at some length upon the aims of the order, and remembered the good work it has done. The electric light recently placed in the church, caused some annoyance by refusing to burn at times.
